Have been made for a big fall and winter trade
and customers will find our stock complete in every department with the most up-to-date
goods procurable. We might say that prices have all advanced, but we were fortunate in placing all orders before the advances took effect and are still in a position to quote old prices in many lines.

and youths' reefers, pea jackets from $2 up,
overcoats $2 up, men's frieze pea jackets with
storm collar $4, reversible $4.50 to 6.50; overcoats $5, 6 to 12.50. See our special in men's peated several lines which we could not get,

they being sold out. So don't leave your buying too late as it will be hard to get a choice.
If in the market for any of above lines, all we
ask is an inspection of our goods and prices;
we are then sure of good results.

Robinson and Hamilton.

Car of groceries, crockery and winter
apples to arrive this week.

The Buzz of Business!

There is no sound so welcome to our ear. It tells us that the buying public is at our back. It is an indorsement of our business methods, and we take it as a "vote of thanks" for all our thought, care and our efforts to please. Now that the fall rush is on, we are not satisfied with business merely "buzzing." We are going to make it "HUM." Our store is filled with the material to do it, because all our goods are
"the right stuff." We would like to tell you of some of the "material," but we will have to content ourselves by extending to you a cordial invitation to
"come and see."

LATEST WAR NEWS.

The British Transports Proceed
to Durban—The Enemy Have Only a Week to Spare.

(Special to THE TIMES.)

Received at Moose Jaw, Nov. 10th, at 8
a.m.—The first of the big fleet of British transports has reached the Cape. The Hosier Castle arrived at Cape Town with the Yorkshire regiment and was ordered to proceed at once to Durban. No word has yet been received from Gen. White of the alleged fight around Ladysmith, but
Gen. Buller may be keeping it to himself.
Indications point to a big movement of Boers from all outlying districts on Ladysmith. Heavy guns will be used. The enemy have only a week to spare, as reinforcements will be there by that time. The Boers are also marching on Grayton.
Bergerdorf is now occupied. The Boers captured $35,000 worth of cattle in the Kimberley district.

Galt Coal Famine.

For the past week there has been a Galt coal famine in Moose Jaw. The miners are on strike and the company
refuse to accept any further orders, as
will be seen by the following circular letter sent out to the different agents of the company to the following effect:

"Dear Sirs—The Lethbridge Miners'
Union having made unreasonable demands upon the company for increased
wages, which it was impossible to grant,
the said Union have given fourteen days'
notice, and I regret to have to inform you that no further orders for coal can
be accepted in view of the interruption
of the supply, which now seems inevitable. E. F. GALT, president."

E. A. Baker & Co., the agents for Moose Jaw and district, have handed us
the following with the request to publish
same:

Lethbridge, Alta., Oct. 27, 1899.

Dear Sirs—We regret to have to inform you that, owing to the output of
our Lethbridge colliery being restricted
by the action of the miners, we are unable to fill our orders as promptly as we would desire. We hope, however, we shall not be hampered in this manner
much longer. You will please understand that we are distributing the coal
at our disposal amongst our various customers without discrimination. Yours truly, E. F. GALT, president.

AN IMPORTANT CASE.

Mr Colbourne, of the Ottawa
Hotel, charged With Selling Liquor to an Interdict-
ed Person.

On Tuesday, Mr. Frank Colbourne, of
the Ottawa Hotel, was charged before W. C. Saunders, J.P., with selling, giving or supplying intoxicating liquor to "Jake" Hawkins, an interdicted person. The charge was laid by Mr. J. M. Simington, License Inspector. Mr. Wm. Grayson
appeared on behalf of the Attorney General, and W. B. Willoughby for the defence. A large amount of evidence has been taken and argument was heard last
night when the case was further adjourned
until Tuesday next, when judgment
will be given. This is probably the most important case that has come up under the license law. The penalty is a fine of from $50 to $200, with the cancellation of license.

At the December sittings of the Supreme court at Regina the Balgonie
school board will sue the C.P.R. for taxes
on their lands in the district. The railway company denies liability. It is understood that the Attorney General's department is taking the matter up and Mr. Haultain himself will appear on behalf of the trustees. The case is to be made a test one to settle definitely the
old question of the liability of the corporation in this respect.

YOU MUST DIE.

Said His Physician. South American
Kidney Cure Gave the Doctor the Lie.
It Cured Bright's Disease.

La Grippe will leave its brand on the weakest spot. A bright young man in a Western Ontario city, son of a well-known lumberman, found that the
influenza epidemic had developed in him
that most fatal of all kidney troubles—
Bright's Disease. Local physicians treated, but to no purpose. He consulted specialists only to be told that his life
hung on a slender thread and recovery
was impossible. But he pinned his faith
to the adage, while there's life there's hope. He began using South American Kidney Cure, and in three months from the day he commenced using it, the
same physician who said he must die,
pronounced him cured.

ORDAINED AND INDUCTED.
Rev. Samuel MacLean, B.A., Formally Placed in Charge of the Presbyterian Congregation.

Tuesday last will be a memorable day
for the Moose Jaw Presbyterian congregation. It will be remembered that was the resignation of the late pastor, Rev.
J. C. Cameron in March last, the congregation has been without a permanent
minister and the pulpit has been supplied by the Regina Presbytery. Among the ministers of the gospel whom the congregation has had the privilege of hearing,
there were a number of earnest and eloquent preachers, so much so that in June last a meeting was held for the purpose of considering the advisability of extending a call; but at that time the congregation was so evenly divided in regard to a choice that the matter was postponed. Rev. Samuel MacLean, B.A.,
a graduate of McGill University, was placed in charge for two Sundays in September and during that
short time made such a favorable impression that, to use the words of the Moderator, Rev. A. J. McLeod,—"The old men said, 'that's our man'; the young men said, 'that's our man'; and everybody said 'we must get him.'" The result was that a meeting was called as promptly as possible and an invitation unanimously extended to Mr. MacLean
to accept the pastorate of the congregation. After the meeting the call was circulated among the members and adherents of the congregation, and a pleasant duty it was for those who had
the matter in hand, for without exception
everyone was glad to fix their signature
to the call and thereby pledge their support and sympathy to Mr. MacLean as their pastor. The call was accepted by Mr. MacLean and approved by the Presbytery at a meeting held in Moose Jaw
on Tuesday afternoon.

Pursuant to announcement read in the church for the past two Sundays, a meeting of the congregation was held at 3
p.m. Tuesday afternoon, for the purpose of ordaining Mr. MacLean and formally
inducting him as pastor of the congregation. Considering that it was an afternoon service, there was a large attendance
and much interest was manifested. The service began by singing Hymn 107.

O, Spirit of the living God,
In all thy plenitude of grace,
Where'er the foot of man hath trod,
Descend on our apostate race.

Rev. P. W. Adams, of Lumsden, then
read the seventeenth chapter of Acts,
and afterwards led in prayer. The congregation then joined in singing.

Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire
And lighten with celestial fire;
Thou the anointing Spirit art,
Who dost Thy sevenfold gifts inspire.

after which the reverend gentleman
preached a well-prepared and helpful
sermon on the subject "Paul at Athens,"
taking as his text the sixteenth verse of the chapter he had just read. "Now
while Paul waited for them at Athens his spirit was stirred within him when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry." The first part of the service closed by singing Hymn 690.

Lord, speak to me, that I may speak
In living echoes of thy tone;
As thou hast sought, so let me seek
Thy erring children lost and lone.

Rev. A. J. McLeod, Moderator of the Presbytery, then took charge of the service, and after a few words explaining the various steps leading up to the call and its acceptance, asked Mr. MacLean the pastor elect, to come forward. The solemn and impressive ceremony of the ordination and induction was then conducted and terminated with prayer by
the Moderator and the laying on of hands
by the Presbytery.

Rev. J. A. Carmichael then addressed
the new pastor in loving words of encouragement, warning and exhortation.
Rev. Mr. McLeod briefly addressed the congregation in regard to the duty they owed their pastor, saying that if he had only two words to say, they would be:
"Support him." Mr. McLeod pointed to the soldiers of the Queen as an apt
illustration of how a congregation should stand together in the great battle for the right, and hoped that there would be entire union of effort among
the members of the congregation and between them and their pastor. After adding Mr. MacLean's name to the roll of the Presbytery, the impressive ceremony was brought to a close by singing
the Doxology, "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow."

The new pastor was then conducted to the door by Rev. J. A. Carmichael, where the right hand of fellowship was extended to him by all those present, including the
pastors of other denominations in town.
At 8 o'clock in the evening a reception
was given the new pastor in the Masonic Hall, where a large number gathered to welcome him to Moose Jaw. The evening passed off very pleasantly. An impromptu program was rendered, consisting of songs, choruses, speeches and instrumental. During the evening Mr. Mac-Lean was called forward and presented
with an address of welcome by Mr.
George Hyslop, clerk of the session, on behalf of the congregation, to which Mr.
MacLean replied in a few well chosen words. Rev. O. Darwin, pastor of the Moose Jaw Methodist church, on behalf of the residents of the city, extended to Mr. MacLean a hearty and cordial welcome to Moose Jaw, saying that they were all glad that their Presbyterian brethren had now a resident pastor. After all
had partaken of the refreshments served bounteously by the Ladies' Aid, the remaining part of the programme was rendered. At 10:30 a pleasant evening's enjoyment was brought to a close by singing "God Save the Queen."

THE BOERS SURPRISE!

GEN. WHITE'S CAVALRY CAPTURE A BOER CAMP.

Belief That the Boers are Waiting for More Guns From Pretoria Before Attacking Ladysmith.

London, Nov. 5.—The war office issued the following at 11.40 tonight: From Gen. Buller to the secretary of state for war:

Cape Town, Nov. 5.—The commandant at Durban sends the following, received from Ladysmith, a pigeon post, dated Nov. 3: Yesterday Gen. French went out with cavalry and field artillery and effectively shelled the Boer laager, without loss on our side.

Col. Brackenbury, with cavalry, field artillery, the Imperial Light Horse and the Natal mounted volunteers, were engaged today with the enemy to the south-east of Ladysmith. The fighting lasted several hours. Our loss was very small. The bombardment of Ladysmith continued yesterday and today. Many Boer shells being pitched into the town. Our troops are in good health and spirits, and the wounded are doing well.

Gen. Joubert sent in Major Kincaid of the Royal Irish Fusiliers, and nine wounded prisoners. Eight Boers were sent out in exchange, no others being fit to travel.

Lieut. Egerton, of the Powerful, is dead.

A special dispatch from Ladysmith, describing Thursday's fighting, says: The artillery duel at dawn, in which the Boer guns were silenced, was intended to occupy the Boers and to enable Sir George Stewart White to achieve his purpose, the capture of the Boer camp behind Bester Hill. For this purpose, the Lancasters Hussars, Natal carabins and Natal Border rifles, started under General French at sunrise and got within striking distance before the enemy was aware of their presence. A field battery was also sent and it secured a good position, commanding the enemy's camp, which was a large one, at Laager, with army wagons and other vehicles.

Bester Hill was well fortified and provided with good guns. At 9 o'clock the British opened fire, the Boers replying with spirit, but had aim. The British quickly sent a 42-pound shell into the camp, inflicting terrible loss and spreading panic among the enemy. Our cavalry then stormed the positions, the Boers fleeing precipitately, leaving many dead and wounded as well as the whole camp and equipment in the hands of the British. This success will upset the plans of the Orange Free State commanders and probably will prevent them giving the British further trouble from the west.

London, Nov. 6.—The Times publishes a dispatch from Pietermaritzburg, Natal, dated Nov. 3, which says: "The Dutch residents have received news of a sanguinary battle fought yesterday, probably between Ladysmith and Colenso. A large number of the Boers were killed, many being relatives of Natal Dutch residing in this place. The English residents have no knowledge of any engagement."

The correspondent of the Times at Ladysmith, under date of Nov. 3, confirms the report of artillery exchanges. He says the investment of the town is now practically complete. Last night the enemy tapped the wires in our rear. He can, therefore, cut our communication whenever he pleases. It is suggested, therefore, that the Boers believe that Ladysmith is in their power, and that they are therefore anxious to have as get up all our military stores before they attack us. A reconnaissance by the Lancasters and a field battery today found a Free State laager, which the British shelled heavily, driving the Boers out.

The general belief in London is that the Boers are now waiting for more guns from Pretoria before attacking Ladysmith. The fact that Sir Redvers Buller appears to have ordered a retirement from Stormberg and perhaps from other places, relieves to some extent the public mind, which, otherwise, would have been further alarmed. Confidence in felt in any measures that General Buller may deem desirable. The knowledge that the pigeon post is working has also come as a relief to the great anxiety previously felt.

London, Nov. 6.—A special dispatch from Ladysmith, dated Nov. 2nd, says: During the night the Boers moved closer to the British positions and mounted guns in fresh places. Meanwhile the naval guns have been moved to more favorable positions near the town and commanding some of the Boer batteries. At 6 o'clock this morning Gen. White ordered the bombardment of the enemy and the bluejackets opened the ball. The Boers replied vigorously. They fired straight and some of the British were hit. A terrible artillery duel has been proceeding for over three hours. So far the naval guns are the only ones that have engaged the enemy."

London, Nov. 5.—It is officially announced that the British evacuated Colenso, south of Ladysmith.

Cape Town, Nov. 5.—On the suggestion of Gen. White the women and children were sent south. A large number of men left at the same time. Some of these behaved badly toward the women. Entire confidence is still reposed here in Gen. White and his staff, and it is expected that another pitched battle will dispel the lingering hope of the Boers that they will be able to take Ladysmith."

Toronto, Nov. 6.—A fire at the foot of Tecumseh street on Saturday night did $17,500 damage.

GEO. A GOULIN SHOT.

As Did He-vent of, alway in a St. Louis Council in His Father Arrested.

Calgary, Nov. 5.—About 4.30 yesterday afternoon George A. Goulin was shot, whether fatally or not is not yet known. The shot was fired from a 38 calibre revolver in one of the upper rooms in the Thomson block on Stephen avenue. Several doctors were soon summoned, and Mr. Goulin was rapidly driven to the hospital.

The shot entered the abdomen and the medical men are doing their best to save the wounded man's life. It is not yet known who fired the shot, but warrants have been issued for the arrest of Mr. H. H. H. Goulin's partner, Mrs. Harris was bound to appear before a magistrate. The latter came here a bride a few months ago. All parties are well known and highly respected. Mr. Goulin has been a resident here for the past twelve years, with the exception of one year spent in Brockville City. Much excitement and deep regret prevails in the town over the occurrence, and earnest hopes are entertained for Mr. Goulin's recovery.

Calgary, Nov. 6.—Mr. Harris returned to the city late last night and gave news of the police. Besides the shot mentioned, Goulin received a severe blow on the temple, presumably from a gun. He is still alive and hopes are entertained for his recovery.

Walked Into the Fly-Wheel.

Brandon, Nov. 3.—A serious accident occurred here yesterday evening by which William Shaw was terribly though not fatally injured. He was showing a friend through the Brandon electric light works, when with no apparent reason he walked into the large fly wheel, revolving many hundred times a minute. He was hit with great force and knocked some distance. The engine pulled him out of the machinery and telephoned for Dr. Anderson. Mr. Shaw did not lose consciousness and said he did not know how he got into the wheel. He was bleeding profusely from a cut on the head, one arm and one leg were broken in several places. Dr. Anderson ordered him taken to the hospital and attended his injuries. Shaw was formerly manager of a bank at Portage la Prairie and resided at one time in Winnipeg.

Fatal Boiler Explosion.

St. Paul, Nov. 6.—By an explosion of the boiler on a steam thrasher on Geo. B. Gullickson's farm, near Havana, N.D., Gullickson, the engineer, Chas. Ahlstrom, William Randall and Henry P. Allen, were killed.

Rat Portage Nov. 6.—Eric Johnson, a Swede, was killed here yesterday afternoon by the caving in of a sewer. He was employed with a gang of men on South Main Street, and at the time was laying a pipe when the bank gave way and about half a ton of earth in a lump toppled over on the unfortunate man. His fellow workmen dug him out in a few minutes but life was extinct. His neck having been broken.

North Portal, Ariz., Nov. 6.—Sixty-six Chinamen who were held here, some of them eight months, and who were denied admission to the United States moved across the boundary today in a body and were arrested by the United States customs officers. They will probably be taken to Grand Forks, where they will be tried by the courts for violation of the Chinese exclusion act. This makes ninety-one who have gone over in this way during the last few months.

London, Nov. 6.—Marquis of Dufferin and Ava has been elected lord rector of Edinburgh university, over Mr. H. Asquith, former secretary of the state home department. The political feeling has been running high between the Liberal and Unionist factions among the students and there have been several conflicts, one in which a student's leg was broken.

Hamilton, Nov. 6.—Wm. Cliffe ate some canned mackerel at yesterday. Today he died and an inquest has been ordered.

THE WIRES ARE CUT.

ONLY BELATED DISPATCHES ARE COMING THROUGH.

Had the War Been Delayed Another Month the Transvaal Would Have Been Invincible.

London, Nov. 5.—There is very little fresh intelligence today, but it is believed that the Delagoa Bay route, if not already restored, will be, thus giving quicker communication with the Cape. The situation is still so confused that the accounts that continue to arrive regarding the fighting at Farquhar's farm only confirm its serious nature and the narrow escape Gen. White had.

It now appears as if it were only the arrival of the naval contingent from the Powerful which prevented a worse disaster. It is known that when it was seen that a reinforcement was imperative two Natal cavalrymen volunteered to convey a dispatch across the Boer lines to Major Ayle ordering him to retire, but the risk was considered too great and flag signalling was employed instead. The distance was too great and the ground too rough for cavalry to go to his assistance. According to dispatches filed on Tuesday, defensive works were being constructed on the hills around Ladysmith and it was expected that there the big naval guns would be mounted the following day.

The Daily Mail publishes the following dispatch from Ladysmith, dated Wednesday morning: "Matters today are quiet. The Boers are apparently mounting more heavy guns to the north and east, which are likely to give us trouble. A Boer contingent, 1,500 strong, and clearly visible from the camp, is streaming away to the south. The inhabitants of Ladysmith continue to leave the town."

The Paris correspondent of the Daily Mail says: "I learn that the Transvaal and Free State governments, before the war, placed large orders with the gun makers at Leeresoot, but that not all the weapons could be delivered, owing to the suddenness with which hostilities began. The guns the Boers are actually using are Creusot's 75 millimetre quick-firing, and 155 millimetre, siege and garrison guns, all mounted on light carriages, and adapted in every possible way for use over muddy roads. They had two months' firing practice under competent Creusot agents. If they could have had another month's practice, no European artillery could have withstood them."

London, Nov. 4.—Communication with Ladysmith has not been restored, as it appears that only belated dispatches are coming through, but unfortunately this has turned out not to be the case.

The Boers were threatening to attack the town in force on Wednesday and Thursday, and the women, children and other non-combatants were being sent by train to the south. Ladysmith is provisioned for two months.

A dispatch from Collesburg, dated November 1st, announces that six police, who were stationed at Collesburg bridge, were surrounded and captured. This is probably the origin of the story that the Boers had occupied Collesburg.

Lorenzo Marquez, Nov. 3.—Five bodies of Boers, totalling 4,000 men, with field guns, are concentrated at Bethulie bridge. They have collected much food.

London, Nov. 3.—Despite the strict censorship concerning the movements of the troops in Africa it is evident a strong column is forming at Deasir Junction for the relief of Kimberley. The 1st Munster Fusiliers, the 2nd Berkshire and half of the 2nd Yorkshire Light Infantry are known to be there, numbering nearly 2,000 in all. The Munsters have been converted into mounted infantry. It was originally intended to send the entire army corps in this way, but the critical position of the British in Natal necessitates diverting re-inforcements as soon as they arrive at the Cape. The government hoped Gen. White would be able to hold the Boers in check in Natal long enough for the army corps to arrive and make a dash into the Transvaal, but all these plans are upset now. Under the conditions some troops must be spared to help Kimberley. Lord Salisbury is anxious to see his son in the field and every effort will be made to help the two beleaguered towns as soon as possible.

London, Nov. 4.—The Standard says until within a very few days, Dr. Leyds has been in telegraphic communication with Pretoria through an indirect diplomatic channel, by means of which he has been able to inform the Transvaal of the supposed British plan to advance through the Orange Free State, with a view of anticipating this movement, the Boers will endeavor to capture or isolate Ladysmith, and then to press on to Durban, where they would be able to prevent the British landing.

Thomasville, Ala., Nov. 4.—A fire last night destroyed Boyle's large store at 1 o'clock yesterday morning. Every business in the town except two were burned.

Toronto, Nov. 4.—Milne Crossland, while riding a wheel, suffered suddenly to avoid running down a little girl who was across his path. His horse was so sudden, he fell off, hitting his head, but apparently not severely, and he rode on. A few hours later he complained of a pain in his head, and became unconscious, conclusion of the brain having set in. He died.

Toronto, Nov. 4.—Rev. Dr. Parsons, pastor of Knox church, has announced his intention of resigning his charge. He has been fifty years in the ministry and pastor of Knox church since 1880.

Domestic Government Offers to Further Assist British Forces in South Africa.

Ottawa, Nov. 5.—The Dominion has offered a second contingent to the Imperial authorities to assist Her Majesty's forces in South Africa. This action has been taken on account of the disaster at Ladysmith. When Sir Wilfrid returned from Quebec, where along with some of his colleagues and it was decided to cable at once an offer of further assistance. The premier made the offer through the governor-general in the usual way.

As to the manner of raising the contingent and what it will comprise the Canadian government will be guided by what Lord Lansdowne and the war office may determine. There will be no difficulty in Canada in raising another thousand soldiers, and they can be equipped and outfitted as already has been demonstrated in very short order. Those who were disappointed in not getting out with the last contingent may yet have an opportunity of going to the front.

The Dominion government have received a reply from the Imperial authorities stating that their offer of troops had been referred to the war office.

Wants the "Open Door."

London, Nov. 4.—A special from Washington asserts that the American state department recently asked France, Germany and Russia to give written assurances regarding the preservation of the "open door" in China, being a disavowal with moral assurances and rejecting the proposal that the United States should send a port and establish a sphere of influence in China. "If these assurances are declined," says the dispatch, "the United States will insist upon China observing the strict letter of the treaty giving the United States equal rights with other powers in China."

The Daily Chronicle commenting editorially on "this new departure of American policy, which will be fully approved in England," dilates upon "the immense importance thereof," and suggests "that it may affect the international politics of Europe to a very remarkable degree."

Jeffries Wins.

New York, Nov. 4.—The long expected fight between Sharkey and Jeffries was successfully pulled off last night at Coney Island. The result was long in doubt but ended in a decision for Jeffries after the twenty fifth round. Both men were badly punished, but toward the end Jeffries was in much the better condition. The preliminary fight was won by Moore. Notwithstanding the heavy rain every seat was occupied and a huge crowd gathered clamoring for admission. At 9.20 Sharkey and Jeffries were both in their dressing rooms. The betting was in favor of Jeffries $100 to $70, at which figure Kid M. Coy placed a large bet on Jeffries. Messages were read from the seat of war telling of British successes with lusty cheers. At 9.2 it was announced that Martin Dolingham had put $7,000 to $6,000 on Jeffries and had as much more as he could place.

CARLTON'S HEROES.

SIXTY KILLED AND 240 WOUNDED BEFORE BEING CAPTURED.

Official List of Casualties Among the Officers—Gen. Kock Dies in the Hospital at Ladysmith.

London, Nov. 3.—General Sir George Stewart White has cabled the war office that in the engagement on Farquhar's farm, near Ladysmith, on Oct. 30, when Lieutenant-Colonel Carlton's column was compelled to surrender, six officers were killed and nine wounded. Among the non-commissioned officers and men the casualties were 54 in killed and 231 wounded.

London, Nov. 3.—At 12.40 yesterday morning the war office issued the text of the dispatch which is dated Ladysmith, November 2, 10 a.m., giving the list of casualties among the officers, which is as follows: Royal Artillery—Killed: Lieut. J. T. McDougal; wounded, Major Jno. Dawkins, slightly; Lieut. Harry Belcher, severely.

Kings Royal Rifle Corps—Killed, Major W. T. Myers, Lieut. H. S. Marden and Lieut. T. L. Forster; wounded, Major Henry E. Buchanan-Riddell and Lieut. H. C. Johnson, both severely.

Royal Irish Fusiliers—Wounded, Capt. G. B. H. Rice and Capt. W. B. Silver, both severely.

Gloucester regiment—Wounded, Capt. S. Wilcock, Capt. B. O'Flynn and Capt. F. S. Stayner, all severely.

Natal Mounted Rifles—Killed, Lieut. Wm. Chapman, Medical corps, killed, Major Edward Gray.

The morning papers are divided in opinion as to whether Sir Geo. White's latest account of the casualties includes the losses of Lieut.-Col. Carlton's column before its surrender. The preponderance of opinion is inclined to believe that these are not included, since if they were General White would probably have mentioned the fact.

The Daily News has a dispatch this morning from Ladysmith dated Tuesday at 10.30 a.m., which gives the first independent account of the cutting off of Lieut.-Col. Carlton's column in the engagement at Farquhar's farm. The correspondent says the column was sent out Sunday night made a wide detour, and reached the spurs of the Drakensberg before dawn. Colonel Carlton stormed the heights with the bayonet and maintained his position against great odds until his ammunition was exhausted and surrender had become inevitable. Nearly two hundred had then been killed and wounded.

A dispatch to the Daily Telegraph from Ladysmith, filed Monday night, giving a description of the battle, says a similar note stamped occurred to Lieut.-Col. Grimwood's column on the Bulwer side. The ammunition was lost, but our infantry quite held their own. It was a serious misfortune that the Powerful's bluejackets were not summoned sooner, as the result of the engagement would have been different."

London, Nov. 3.—The war office has just informed the Associated Press that a dispatch has been received from the governor of Natal, Sir Walter Francis Healy Hutchinson, announcing that communication with Ladysmith had been interrupted since half-past two o'clock this afternoon. This is not regarded by the war office, however, as in any way confirming the rumors of a complete investment of Ladysmith or the capture of Colenso.

BATTLESHIP LAUNCHED.

British First-Class Battleship Christened by Mrs. Joseph Chamberlain "Venerable."

Obtham, Eng., Nov. 2.—The launching of the British first-class battleship Venerable here, today, was accompanied by scenes of unusual enthusiasm. The christening was performed by Mrs. Joseph Chamberlain who was accompanied by her husband, the British secretary for the colonies. They received a great ovation. The daughter of Sir Wm. Henry White, director of naval construction, presented Mrs. Chamberlain with a magnificent bouquet, and, taking a chisel and mallet in her hands, Mrs. Chamberlain successfully served the cord, releasing the warship from its ways, at the same time breaking a bottle of wine over its bows, saying, "I name the Venerable."

Great cheers went up from the assembled crowds when the ship glided into the water and the land struck up "Life on the Ocean Wave," followed by "Rule Britannia." The presence included the first end of the admiralty, Mr. G. J. Goswami and other naval men. The admiral in charge of the dock yard entertained the distinguished party at luncheon.

Kimberley Surrounded.

He says he passed close enough to Kimberley to see the searchlights, was informed that the defenders of Kimberley were satisfied they could hold out, but were weakened by the inactivity and hoped that a relieving force would soon arrive. Stories of the Boer victories have spread rapidly along the western border and Magistrate Harnsworth states that over half of the Dutch residents of Bechuanaland and Griqualand will join the Boers after the declaration of annexation.

Cape Town, Oct. 31.—Delayed in transmission.—It is asserted that 3,000 Boers have collected at Bethulie bridge, near Kimberley, under Field Cornet Dutoit. The Orange river is now in full flood and fording is reported to be impossible.

LICENSE INSPECTION.

It is reported that the Territorial license inspection is to be changed to a more centralized system. That is, the present local district inspectors are to be dispensed with, and two general inspectors are to be appointed. This may be the intention, but it is difficult to see just how that is going to improve the enforcement of the license system. As it is, the inspectors cannot cover the ground, and certainly a less number cannot do it. From the rumors that are in circulation it would appear that there has been serious complaints of infraction of the law. No doubt there is cause for such complaint in many places. Any restraining law is bound to be broken more or less. If there was no tendency to break the law there would be no need to provide for its enforcement. Of course the license law is broken, and of course it always will be broken. The most that can be hoped for is that a fair appearance of the law being kept shall be maintained. How one man is to do this if four have not been able to do it is hard to see.

Possibly the intention of the government is to appoint a general inspector who shall have supervision of the work of the local inspectors. This would no doubt be of great advantage in the enforcement of the law; as all questions could then be decided by practical authority on the ground, instead of being referred to the office at Regina, where the officials are not necessarily practical men and cannot have personal knowledge of the surroundings of the case.—Edmonton Bulletin.

BOER AND BRITAIN.

The Transvaal and Orange Free State together comprise an area 800 miles in greatest length by 500 miles in greatest breadth,—somewhat larger than the Canadian North-West from Winnipeg to the Rockies and from the Saskatchewan to the boundary. It is chiefly an elevated prairie, having a moderate climate, and chiefly a fertile soil. At Kimberley, adjoining or partly within the Orange Free State, are the greatest diamond mines in the world, and at Johannesburg, in the Transvaal, are the greatest gold mines in the world. This is a country well worth fighting for, particularly as both republics have been proven to be suitable for settlement by white men. The Free State is the better agricultural region, having a cooler climate than the Transvaal. The population of the Transvaal is given as 80,000 Boers and 123,650 British and other nationalities. The Free State has 78,100 Boers and 15,900 British and others. Cape Colony with Bechuanaland, strange to say, has a larger Boer population than the Transvaal and Free State together, namely, 255,000 Boers and 194,500 British. Although nominally loyal, there is no doubt that the Boer army is largely augmented by volunteers from the Boer population of the Cape. Natal has a Boer population 6,500 and a British population of 123,650. Rhodesia has 1,500 Boers and 8,500 British. Basuto land has 300 Boers and 381 British.

According to a Brussels despatch, Dr. Leyds, the diplomatic agent of the Transvaal in Europe, issued a statement that the Boers have now nearly 100,000 men in the field, made up as follows: Boer regulars, 35,000; artillery, 1,250; police, 1,750; Orange Free State troops, including Bechuanaland, 35,000; Natal Boers, 3,000; Bechuanaland and Rhodesian Boers, 8,000; foreign legion, 600; Americans, 4,000; Germans, 6,000; Dutch Belgians, 2,000; Irish, 1,000; Scandinavians, 600; French, Swiss and Italians, 200. The Jews, it appears, are doing police work.

The British force in South Africa is—Regulars, 12,000; volunteers, 14,000; reinforcements to arrive before Nov. 1st, 10,000. Total force in South Africa by

Nov. 1st, 38,000. Reinforcements contemplated: One complete army corps, divided thus, cavalry, 5,534; infantry, 29,258; corps troops, including artillery engineers, etc., 5,122; troops on the line of communication, 9,297; troops on the base, 2,832; total, 52,338. Contingents from Queensland and New Zealand, 250. Grand total, 52,588.

The commission appointed by the Manitoba Government to investigate the affairs of the hail insurance company whose dealings had given rise to a deal of unfavorable comment, has made report, which clearly exhibits the position of affairs and proves that there existed good grounds for the complaints.—Leader

At one time last winter an hospital for Moose Jaw was much talked of, but after the pneumonia subsided the matter was dropped. Now that there is so much sickness in town and so many of our residents being compelled to go to Medicine Hat or Winnipeg, would it not be a good time to set the ball rolling again? The present billow of prosperity which has apparently come to stay should also be an incentive to "try, try again."

Canada is full of people who are just and good in theory, but who fail in practice. They vote Grit or Tory without regard to their principles of right and wrong; or they do not vote at all, thus showing even greater weakness. What Canada requires is not good citizens, but citizens who are actively good; not men who avoid politics, but men who go into politics and help to keep our political machinery from falling into the hands of the disreputable.—Canadian Magazine.

Now that winter may be with us at any time we think some effort should be made looking to the formation of a literary and debating society. During the long winter nights time often hangs heavily on our hands, and for the want of something interesting to do we often do nothing. True, we have the skating and curling rinks, which are a blessing in themselves, but are they enough? A literary and debating society would secure recreation of a different nature and also amusement to its members. Why not give it a trial?

F. C. Selous, an English authority on South Africa, has somewhat startled London by predicting that the British Government will be lucky if it succeeds in conquering the Boers in less than eighteen months. Mr. Selous speaks with full knowledge of the situation. He left England in 1871 at the age of twenty, and for the next twenty-eight years travelled all over South Central Africa, making a living by hunting elephants and by the collection of specimens of natural history. In 1880 he took service with the Chartered Company and acted as a guide for the pioneer expedition to Mashonaland. In 1892 he returned to England, but went back the next year to take part in the Matabele war. He has published three volumes of adventure and exploration in South Africa. Mr. Selous laughs at the idea that the Boers have forgotten how to shoot straight, and declares that they will fight with the desperation of men who have their all at stake.

Rat Portage News.—On Wednesday, 25th ult., Chas. C. Delbridge and Sarah Luttrell, both of Rat Portage, were united in matrimony by Rev. W. M. Rochester, at Knox church. Miss M. Luttrell, cousin of the bride acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. Ralf Delbridge as groomsmen. The happy pair left the following morning for the west on their honeymoon trip. They will reside on East Fort St. Mrs. Delbridge received a large number of valuable wedding presents.

Many men and women are almost within the deadly grasp of consumption. Although its fatal hand is unseen, its presence is made known by unmistakable symptoms. Catarrh often leads to consumption. A stubborn cough, sore throat, pains in the chest, bronchitis, bleeding at the lungs, loss of flesh and general weakness are warnings that this relentless disease is about to gather in a victim.

A remedy for all the diseases which, if neglected or badly treated, lead up to consumption, is found in

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

It builds up the weak places and fortifies the system against the onslaughts of disease. It helps the appetite, assists digestion, is an aid to the proper assimilation of food, and cleanses the blood of all its impurities. It is a strictly temperance medicine, containing not an atom of whisky or alcohol in any form.

"Your medicine is the best I have ever taken," writes Mr. Jennie Duggan, of Vancouver, B. C. "I had a cough, got so bad I had to be in bed all the time. My husband thought I had consumption. He wanted me to get a doctor, but I told him if it was consumption they could not help me. I was coughing day and night, and I had taken one bottle of your medicine and I have since had no signs of its return."

For the most obstinate forms of constipation and biliousness, use Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Their action is prompt yet comfortable; their effect is permanent. Insist that the druggist does not give you something else.

DELEGATES REPORT.

"If You Want to Get Rich, go to Moose Jaw," Says the Michigan Farmers' Delegates.

Last summer a delegation consisting of G. T. Field, M.D., E. D. Schweigert and James Armstrong, of Chase, Lake Co., Michigan, visited the North-West and Manitoba to spy out the land on behalf of thirty or forty families of Michigan. It will be remembered that they spent five days in the Moose Jaw district and were driven through the wheat fields by their old acquaintances, Messrs. Maynard and Maharg. The delegates have now submitted their report, which includes an account of their visit around Winnipeg, Calgary, Edmonton, Prince Albert, and last, but not least, Moose Jaw. They speak very highly of our country as a whole, but of this district in particular, as will be seen by the following extracts taken from their report: "At Moose Jaw we spent five days driving around the country and talking with the farmers. Here we saw magnificent wheat fields, yielding thirty to forty bushels per acre, and such contented, prosperous people that we thought, as we had thought about other places, this must be the finest country we have ever seen. We saw such contentment and neighborly feeling. Young men who came here three, five or nine years ago, some with twenty-five cents capital, others with little more, and to-day worth 5, 10 and $15,000 in land, horses, wheat or cash, while others who have been here longer have a correspondingly large bank account, and better houses. Here, too, we searched in vain for Mr. Failure, but found him not and after diligent enquiry we discovered he had left the Moose Jaw district several years ago for parts unknown, and had not since been heard of. It is true we were here only five days in the year; the other 360 we did not see, but they must have had the proper soil and climate, coupled with industry, or it would have been impossible for them to have shown us such magnificent crops and this told the story. The earliest settlers brought with them the same ideas and the same implements to till the soil that they used in the country from which they came. These, in many cases, were not applicable. From this source alone have been due the failures in the past, but with experience and new improved machinery adapted for tilling the soil, those early adventures will never again be known, we believe. There will be good years and poor years, but the farmer will be amply rewarded for his toil in the poorest year. Here let us say, the best farmers summarize their land every three or four years. A summer-fallow consists of plowing in June, go over it with the weeder in July or August, then with the harrow in September, nothing more until spring when you go on it with the drill. Then take off three crops without plowing, then summer-fallow again. We saw a piece of land that was said to have been cropped eight years without plowing, and it had a good crop this season, but this is not advised by the best farmers. The intending colonist should take with him all his possessions excepting plows and harrows, as these will be of no use when he gets there, and if he has a good strong lumber wagon, take it, but an old one will not bear the loads usually drawn in that country. We shall be pleased to answer, personally, any letters of enquiry that may be addressed to us. We must say, especially to the Michigan farmer, there are no potato bugs in the North-West.

After speaking of their visit to Prince Albert the report goes on to say: "We want to say to you to Edmonton and you will always be glad. Go to Moose Jaw and THE WHEAT FIELDS WILL MAKE YOU RICH. Go to Prince Albert and you will never regret it. There are no taxes outside of the incorporated villages and towns, excepting twenty-five per cent of the school tax, the other seventy-five per cent being paid by the Dominion Government. Crime is very rare, owing to the eternal vigilance of the mounted police, than whom there are none more faithful to their trust. The exemption laws are very generous, the 100 acres of homesteaded Government gives you, no one can take from you. There is much more we would like to say, but time and space forbid. We want to say that at each and every place we visited we had abundance of good pure water for drinking purposes, and we may add we never drank anything but water, either at home or abroad, tea and coffee not being agreeable to us, and having drunk water freely each and every one of the thirty days of our absence from home, during which we travelled 633 miles, and notwithstanding the change of water, diet and climate, we never unjoyed more perfect health than we did during our journey through the Canadian North-West. It is true, however, there are alkali beds and alkali water at various places in the west, but we pass them by as we do the wart upon our neighbor's nose, for they do not concern us or any other intending settler. "Westward the star of empire takes its way." We appreciate this saying as we never did before. Soon the East must bow to the West, for she holds in her hands the keys to the granaries of the world. In conclusion we want to thank you one and all for the many acts of kindness extended to us, from the highest government or railroad official, to the humblest homesteader in his little shack. Every one gave us the warm hand of welcome and not only to us but to our another. They made us think of the good old Roman days as told by Lord Macanley, where the rich man helped the poor, and the poor man loved the great. O yes, Canadians, come home, where as good a farm awaits you almost for the asking as rests beneath God's sunshine. The flag that floats o'er England's seas, lives and loves you. And to you that were born under other suns, she extends a welcome on the same terms as her own children. Come and share her peace and prosperity. Respectfully yours,

G. T. FIELD, E. D. SCHWEIGERT, JAMES ARMSTRONG. Dated at Chase, Oct. 19, 1899.

In another column of the paper—the Red City Weekly Clarion—in which the report is published, the following little advertisement appears, which is very significant in this connection: OFFERS FOR SALE.

I have just returned from a trip of 6,333 miles through the wheat fields of the Canadian Northwest. I desire to move there. I am authorized to sell farm, house, lots, drug store and various other property at 25 to 50 cents on the dollar. Must be sold at once. Terms cash. G. T. FIELD, M.D. Chase, Lake Co., Mich.

BEYOND COMPARISON!

There is Nothing in the World to Compare in Curative Value with Dr. Von Stan's Pineapple Tablets for Dyspepsia.

Vegetable pepin is the most valuable constituent in the pineapple. Barring the digestive juices of the human system, no other article or product has the power to digest all kinds of food, except vegetable pepin. One's general health would be amazingly improved if he could eat a pineapple every day, but hardly one person in a thousand could do so because of the trouble and expense of getting them when out of season.

Dr. Von Stan's Pineapple Tablets have all the virtues of the ripe fruit—they are largely made up of the precious pineapple acid. They cure dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Box of 60 Tablets, 35 cents.

How to Cook. Pope says:—"The vulgar boil, the learned roast an egg." But if he had lived until now he would know there are twenty other ways of cooking one. Marion Harland tells them all in the volume of "Cooking Hints," the fourth volume of the "Bits of Common Sense Series." You can obtain these books and the Weekly Globe, which has been for over 55 years, and is now Canada's leading newspaper, from now to Jan. 1st, 1900, for one dollar, and Marion Harland's latest work, "Bits of Common Sense," in four volumes. Sent free, postage prepaid.

DISCHARGED TO DIE.

But Mrs. Fitzpatrick Didn't Lose Hope. Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart Accomplished What the Physicians Couldn't.

If the thousands of people who rush to go to a resort as a last resort would go to it as a first resort, how much misery and suffering would be spared. Mrs. John Fitzpatrick, of Ganoquo, after being treated by eminent physicians for heart disease of five years' standing, was discharged from the hospital as a hopeless incurable. The lady procured Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart, she declared as a last resort. One dose relieved a very acute spasm in less than half an hour, and three bottles cured her.

2,000 BOERS CAPTURED!

HARD FIGHTING ROUND LADY- SMITH.

General White Achieves a Big Success—A Terrible Slaughter
of Fleeing Boers—The Enemy are Withdrawing—Kimberley Threatened.

(From The Daily Times.)

Received at Moose Jaw, Nov. 4, 1899.—
The war summary. Latest news indicates the Boers were mounting heavy guns
around Ladysmith on Wednesday, preparing for a further bombardment. The naval brigade of the British have also mounted other big guns. The inhabitants were leaving the town that day, but communication with Ladysmith has since been interrupted. The intention of the Boers is to isolate the place and march
down to capture Durban, preventing the landing of British troops at that point.
An army order has been issued to mobilize
thirty-five battalions of troops by Nov.
20th. The Dominion Government has made an offer of a second regiment to the Imperial Government for service in South Africa. The matter is now before the war office and a reply is expected to-day.
The anti-British feeling in France continues to spread, owing to the rabidness
of the press, and the British squadron
are being held in readiness to move at a moment's notice. General Buller is still at Cape Town, but a flying column is in preparation to go to the relief of Kimberley, Mafeking and Ladysmith.

Moose Jaw, Nov. 6th, 1899.—The war
summary.—The British made an advance from Ladysmith on the Boer camp
on Thursday. An artillery duel started at dawn and the cavalry came up quietly
and stormed the heights, the Boers flying precipitately. There is a complete investment of Ladysmith, and it is estimated that it will take two weeks before the place can be relieved. By Nov. 15th 10,000 fresh troops are en route to lower Natal. Colenso in Northern Cape Colony, and Caborne, in Bechuana-
land, have been occupied by the Boers. Colenso, south of Ladysmith,
has been evacuated. The N.S.W. Lancers
have arrived at Cape Town.

Moose Jaw, Nov. 7th, 1899.—War summary.—This morning's news carries the public knowledge with respect to hostil-
ties in South Africa very little further than the evacuation of Colenso and Stromberg. The movements, together with the Admiralty announcement that
the public must not be disappointed
should the transports not reach their destination on the dates indicated in the
published lists, may indicate some change
of plan necessitated by the bad position
of affairs in Natal. It was expected that the army corps would land near Cape Town for an invasion of the Transvaal
through the Orange Free State, but the landing may now be diverted to Durban,
whither it is expected Gen. Sir Redvers Buller will go within a week or two to investigate the situation for himself.
There is also the possibility of a movement through Delagoa Bay, and the Admiralty note regarding transports simply means that news of their movements is to be suppressed. Fighting was resumed around Ladysmith on Friday. The Boers
were again driven back from the hills to their camp with great loss. It is believed
there are 11,000 Free State troops concentrated against Kimberley and on southern frontier. The railway line has been seized seven miles south of Ladysmith and communication severed.

Moose Jaw, Nov. 8th, 1899.—War sum-
mary.—Later advices from South Africa
indicate that the victories of Gen. White on Thursday, Friday and Saturday were even greater than announced. The infantry charged the enemy Friday on the hills north of Tugela river, and with the help of the batteries were successful in driving them back. The storming of the heights was gallantly carried out by the Gordons and Fusiliers. The cavalry
fought the Boers in the rear of the plains
while they were retiring, almost annihilating them. It is said 2,000 Boers were taken prisoners at Saturday's engagement. The British government has practically decided to mobilize the entire British army. The second army corps will consist of 40,000 men.

Moose Jaw, Nov. 9, 1899.—A strong
force from Durban has re-occupied Colenso, and is now on the march to join hands with Gen. White and relieve Ladysmith. The corps consists of 3,500 men.

mounted infantry and artillery. No
transports have yet reached Cape Town,
but the troop ships may have been intercepted by despatch boats and ordered on to Durban. Fully 4,500 men are expected to-day. Friday's and Saturday's severe engagements have evidently quieted
the Boers, as General Joubert is withdrawing his commands from around Ladysmith, leaving only outposts. The Boers are making a concentrated effort
to capture Kimberley and Cecil Rhodes,
and the situation there is grave. Mafek-
ing investment is laughed at by inhabitants. Heavy guns, with German artillerymen, have left Pretoria for the south.

WAR NOTES.

London, Nov. 6.—A report from Storm-
burg junction says that General Cronje
who has been besieging Mafeking, has been captured.

Ottawa, Nov. 8.—The Government still awaits the home authorities acceptance
or declining of the Canadian troops. No
answer has yet been received.

London, Nov. 8.—There are rumors of a likely outbreak of war between Japan and Russia over the partitioning of China.

The London newspapers publish a list
of the transports due to arrive at Cape Town from to-day. According to this, 20,000 men should reach the Cape by the end of next week.

A Capetown despatch says the British Hussars captured by the Boers and now
at Pretoria are anxious to be exchanged.
In the meantime they pass their time
playing football, etc., but speak highly of
the treatment they have received.

It is reported from Halifax that an attempt was made to blow up H.M.S.
"Crescent," the largest of the British American fleet, a little before midnight
on Thursday. The outrage is supposed to have been planned by Boer emissaries.
Gunnery Lieut. Egerton, of the British cruiser Powerful, wounded by the explosion of a shell in the bombardment of Ladysmith, has been promoted to the rank of commander for services in the field. His legs have been amputated as a result of his wounds.

The British troopship Paidan, which sailed for South Africa Nov. 1, from Liverpool, is returning in a damaged
condition, having encountered yesterday's storm. She signalled that her stirrings were out of order, several horses
had been drowned and three of her boats stove in. She is going to Liverpool to be refitted.

The evacuation of Colenso is undoubtedly a most serious matter for the British in Natal, as it not only testified to the complete investment of Ladysmith by the Boers, but makes the relief of General Sir George Stewart White an extremely difficult operation. The seriousness of the evacuation, however, lies in the fact that Commander General Joubert, while completely investing Sir George White
at Ladysmith, can seize Tugela
bridge and if he has sufficient troops can detach a force and send it southward on Pietermaritzburg, and in any case by destroying the bridge and railway can prevent a relief expedition reaching Sir
George White for some time.

London, Nov. 8.—Interesting news
comes from the Channel squadron at Gibraltar, showing the precautions against all eventualities almost unknown in European waters in peace time. On the way to Gibraltar the fleet spread out four miles apart and a sharp lookout was kept
for suspicious craft. At Gibraltar, extra sentries are posted at night at different parts of the ships, with ten rounds of ball cartridge each. The still guns on the upper deck and in the firing tops are kept ready for immediate use, the ammunition being on deck. A few men
sleep at the guns, searchlights are kept working, all boats are hoisted and not allowed to approach without permission
of the officer of the watch.

Between the ages of fifteen and forty-
five, the time when womanhood begins
and motherhood ends, it is estimated that
the aggregate term of woman's suffering
is ten years. Ten years out of thirty!
One-third of the best part of a woman's life sacrificed! Think of the enormous loss of time! But time is not all that is lost. Those years of suffering steal the bloom from the cheeks, the brightness

A NUMBER OF THE GLOUCESTERS ARRIVE AT LADYSMITH.

The Mule Batteries Also Returning—Reported Gen. Buller Has Left Capetown for Ladysmith.

London, Nov. 2.—The breaking down of the Delagoa bay route, combined with the monopolization of the available telegraph lines by the government and the state officers, is responsible for the fact that nothing further has arrived from South Africa.

Up to midnight nothing had been received concerning Monday's casualties. The war office officials are working under great strain. Captain Perrott, staff captain to the military secretary, has just died, his end being hastened by anxiety and overwork.

An unconfirmed statement is published that General Sir R. Buller has left Cape Town for Ladysmith. A belated dispatch from Ladysmith describing Monday's fight says: "A couple of squadrons of Boers had a narrow escape from disaster early in the day. They found themselves suddenly confronted within easy range by an overwhelming force of Boers, who seemed to spring from the bowels of the earth. The Boers were splendidly disciplined and were extricated with only one man wounded."

A special dispatch from Pietermaritzburg, Natal, dated Tuesday morning, says: "Stragglers from the Gloucestershire regiment are arriving at Ladysmith. A number of mules, with a portion of the mountain battery, are also coming in."

London, Nov. 2.—The Queen's credit with expressing sincere sympathy for Sir George White and the officials are in now inclined to judge him harshly. So far as the public is concerned, however, while gratification is felt at the manner in which the isolated battalions suffered, there is still severe criticism for General White and Lieut. Col. Carlton for allowing their columns to get out of touch by the absence of proper scouting and for not retiring when the ammunition wagon was lost. In favor of Lieut. Col. Carlton the explanation is hazarded that he believed it was imperative to the success of General White's operations that he should hold the position at Nicholson's Nek.

The Morning Post comments severely upon the British contempt for the enemy, as shown by the belief that the large Boer force at Acton Homes could be held in check by Carlton's small column. It points out that, even if the British there had been supplied with ammunition, they could only hold out a few hours longer, inasmuch as they were in the most complete sense, detached, and because nobody apparently at Ladysmith had any idea of their distress, or took measures to rescue them. The column was sacrificed, says the Post, because it was sent into action gaggled and blindfolded. It had neither scout nor patrol. Twelve hundred men were thrown away for lack of cavalry, which would not have been missed from another part of the field.

THAT HEROIC STAND.

London, Nov. 2.—The gloom caused by the British disaster at Ladysmith is in a measure relieved by today's story giving an account of the heroic stand made by the decimated battalions until their last cartridge was shot. British nerve was momentarily shaken by Gen. White's use of the word "capitulate" in his first telegram, but it is now known the Gloucesters and Fusiliers fought back to the wall against overwhelming odds, and upheld the best traditions of the British army. The tension has been relieved, since there is no longer any ground for the loss of life and men being accompanied by dishonor. Details today show the catastrophe in a brighter aspect. The fall battalions were not engaged and therefore the list of prisoners has been materially reduced. While the disaster now appears to have not been so much in consequence of defeat as the plan of action was a misfortune where, by the column was deprived of its ammunition. Still, it seems incomprehensible why the plight of the luckless column was not known at headquarters as the scene of the surrender was apparently only about three miles northwest of Ladysmith. And Lieut. Col. Carlton must have expected relief to reach him, or instead of attempting to occupy a defensive position he would have retraced his steps to Ladysmith when he suffered the fatal loss of his ammunition. Apart from General White's statement that the losses are very numerous, there is nothing to indicate the extent except a vague report to the effect that the soldier who brought the news to Ladysmith said the British dead and wounded were lying in heaps and hundreds needed doctors.

The concluding sentence in General White's dispatch, relative to the safety of Ladysmith, is received here with a certain degree of view of the fact that similar official assurances were given recently at Dundee and Glencoe, and there is intense anxiety for further news of the reported renewed attack, which is not mentioned in official dispatches.

ANOTHER REGIMENT.

Ottawa, Nov. 2.—It is just probable that the Canadian government will make another offer of troops to the Imperial authorities to aid and assist Her Majesty's forces in the Transvaal. This is now under consideration on account of the disaster at Ladysmith. If such an offer is made there will be no trouble in raising a regiment.

London, Nov. 2.—The morning papers comment, with the greatest satisfaction, upon Canada's suggestion regarding the sending of a second contingent to South Africa.

ARTILLERY ENGAGEMENT.

Ladysmith, Nov. 1.—A heavy artillery engagement was fought at Ladysmith yesterday and still continues. The British have two small guns, 50 pounders, and the Boers have 40 pounders. The city is closely invested.

London, November 2.—It is announced in a special dispatch from Ladysmith that the Boers again closed around that place Monday night, sending shells into the British camp. The two guns landed from the British cruiser Powerful opened fire on the Boers at dawn on Tuesday. The Boers brought up more guns, but some of them were silenced. It is added that the Boers' losses must have been heavy. The garrison of Ladysmith is described as being in good spirits and confident and the troops are said to be full of fight. The artillery duel was still in progress Tuesday night.

Cape Town, Nov. 1.—The guns of the British naval brigade have knocked the Boer force from their position on Herpworth Hill, overlooking Ladysmith. The Boers abandoned their positions.

OVER 2,100 CASUALTIES.

London, Nov. 1.—The war office today issued the following additional list of fifty-eight casualties sustained by General Buller's force from the time of the battle of Glencoe until it joined the force of Sir George White: King's Rifles, four killed, 13 wounded. Leicestershire regiment, one wounded, nine missing. Artillery, one killed, one wounded, two missing. Mounted infantry, 27 missing. The last mentioned were attached to the squadron of the 1st Hussars, who were entrapped by the Boers after the battle of Glencoe. They were undoubtedly captured with the Hussars. A careful calculation of the British losses in all the engagements since the outbreak of hostilities, excluding the casualties among the non-commissioned officers and men in Monday's disaster at Ladysmith, which are so far unknown here, gives a total of 916; to which probably 1,200 will need to be added when the details regarding the Ladysmith reverse are received. This total is made up as follows: Officers, 133; being 9 killed, 61 wounded, 53 captured. Men, 783; being 137 killed, 493 wounded and 154 captured.

A SERIOUS REVERSE.

BOERS CAPTURE ROYAL IRISH FUSILIERS AND GLOUCESTERS.

Disaster Caused by Stamping of the Mules, Carrying Away the Ammunition Reserves.

London, Oct. 31.—The war office has received a dispatch from Gen. White, commanding the British forces at Ladysmith, reporting that the Royal Irish Fusiliers, No. 10 Mountain battery, and the Gloucestershire regiment were surrounded in the hills by the Boers and, after losing heavily, were obliged to capitulate. Gen. White adds that the casualties have not yet been ascertained.

Following is the text of Gen. White's dispatch to the war office: "Ladysmith, Oct. 31.—I have to report a disaster to the column sent by me to take a position on a hill to guard the left flank of the troops. In these operations today the Royal Irish Fusiliers, No. 10 Mountain battery and the Gloucestershire regiment, were surrounded in the hills and, after losing heavily, had to capitulate. The casualties have not yet been ascertained."

"A man of the Fusiliers, employed as a hospital orderly, came in under a flag of truce with a letter from the survivors of the column, who asked for assistance to bury the dead. I fear there is no doubt of the truth of the report. I formed a plan in the carrying out of which the disaster occurred, and I am alone responsible for the plan. There is no blame whatever to the troops, as the position was untenable."

MONDAY'S SEVERE LESSON.

London, Nov. 1.—An ominous curtain has again descended upon the affairs in Natal. No dispatches, except the official telegram of General Sir George Stewart White, have thus far been permitted to mention the disaster and no telegram from Ladysmith has been received in London since the advice from the British commander. This gives rise to a belief that communication has already been cut, in which event some time must elapse before the details regarding the British losses are received. If the war office officials have received information on this point they have refrained from publishing it. Gen. White's estimate that the British losses were about ninety is evidently quite separate from the probable losses in killed and wounded among the captured battalions. On this point there is the greatest suspense among the relatives of the prisoners.

It is supposed that the stampeding of the mules meant the carrying away of the reserves of ammunition, and that the troops captured capitulated after firing the rounds which each man carried in the absence of news, the morning papers are reduced to speculation as to how the disaster occurred. The general opinion is that a misuse of the cavalry was the real reason for the falling into the Boer trap. Apparent there was no cavalry to watch over the safety of the missing column.

The Morning Post, pointing how near the British were to a "still greater disaster," says: "In capturing the column the Boers also had the Devonshire regiment practically at their mercy and a little more daring would have made a bad business much worse, and seeing that a force strong enough to scoop a couple of infantry battalions could have put itself practically between Sir George White and his camp, we may be very thankful that things today are not more serious than they are."

The lesson has been a severe one. It is humiliating to find a nation of farmers beating soldiers at their own game, and the sooner a proper respect is had for Boer strategy and tactics the better for our fortunes in Natal.

This morning's news is struck by all the morning papers today, together with the expression of a determination to carry the matter through at whatever cost. The Daily Chronicle, referring editorially to the situation, says: "In view of the potent feature of the campaign, and of the terrible humiliation of the British army, we can only vaguely hope that Sir George White, in the hardship days that lie before him, may be able to hold Ladysmith. A retreat would be an undertaking which the imagination fails to grasp. If this war is to be a war of vengeance, we shall have to wipe out a disaster before which the memory of Majuba fades away. The empire is face to face with a repulse comparable only to the surrender of Burgoyne to the embattled farmers of our American colonies. If the catastrophe calls for something better than music hall parades, we may come to reckon it as a timely lesson, well learned, for the good of our souls."

The Times says: "We have met with a considerable reverse. It is for the nation to show that it can bear ill-fortune with courage and dignity. There is no general desire evinced on the part of the papers to criticize Sir Geo. White harshly, pending the arrival of further details. On the contrary, the disposition is to admire his manly courage in assuming the full responsibility."

The Daily News says: "If it is found possible to move the stores, Sir George White will probably be ordered to withdraw upon Colenso. If the order is not given, it will be because a removal of the stores would be too risky."

Berlin, Nov. 1.—The Berlin papers have had very little to say, so far, regarding the British disaster at Ladysmith, but they all show a disposition to magnify it, and to criticize Sir Geo. White's tactics severely, particularly what one paper styles "his endeavor to deceive the British public."

BOERS AGAIN ACTIVE.

London, Nov. 1.—Public anxiety was increased by a special dispatch from Ladysmith, published by the late editions of the London morning papers, to the effect that before darkness yesterday the Boers recaptured the old position held by their heavy artillery, which General White had reported silenced by the guns of the naval brigade from the Powerful, and had opened fire again. The dispatch further says: "The enemy are again closing in, and the situation is one of grave anxiety. Beyond doubt the Boer reinforcement yesterday was a ruse to draw General White into the hilly country and away from the British camp."

WHITE MAY BE RECALLED.

Sir Geo. White's honest admission of full responsibility and the terms of the dispatch are regarded in some circles as virtually placing his case in the hands of the home authorities and it is even rumored this evening that the war office has already decided to supersede him. About six thousand fresh troops will arrive at Cape Town Sunday next and will be available to reinforce Sir Geo. White. Transports will arrive there daily after Sunday until by the end of the next week 25,000 troops will have been landed in South Africa. These men are intended for General Sir Redvers Buller's army, but they will undoubtedly be dispatched to Natal, if the situation there should become perilous. The British army will eventually reach the huge total of 89,639, of which 69,639 will be regulars, and the other 20,000 miscellaneous, but excellent colonial troops.

London, Nov. 1.—An urgent cabinet council has been summoned for today. The secretary of state for the colonies, Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, arrived in London last evening.

REJOICING IN FRANCE.

London, Nov. 1.—Abroad, especially in France, no pains are taken to disguise the satisfaction felt in consequence of the British rebuff. In Paris, every means of spreading the news was utilized and some of the more dignified papers adopted a respectful and sympathetic tone, but the majority were overjoyed. The editor of Patrie hung the Transvaal and Orange Free State flags out of the office window. The Press predicts a general revolt of the Dutch population in South Africa. The Boer blintz is regret that France did not adopt a different attitude during the recent incident crisis. The Courier du Soir thinks that the continental powers will propose arbitration. M. Yves Guyot, in the Senate, is almost alone in supporting Great Britain against the Boers.

London, Nov. 1.—The Irish Nationalist papers are quite gleeful. The Dublin Evening Telegraph, Mr. John Dillon's paper, says: "A big bully triumph is no lovely spectacle, but a big bully beaten is the very acme of disgrace." The Dublin Evening Herald ridicules the idea of Great Britain menia Russia after Sir George White's message.

SEVERAL LIVES LOST.

At Montreal by Burning of the Webster House, Near Bonaventure Station.

Montreal, Nov. 1.—The Webster House, situated at the corner of St. James and Cathedral streets, near Bonaventure station, was gutted by fire early this morning. Three charred bodies have already been taken from the ruins, two of them have been identified as those of women employed in the hotel. E. C. Perkins is the proprietor of the hotel. The firemen believe that other bodies are in the ruins and a vigorous search is now in progress.

The number of casualties seems likely to increase as the day goes on. One man is reported dead at the Notre Dame hospital, and another named Kidd is reported dying. The dead man is believed to be John Benbow, of Ottawa, whose son was one of the Transvaal contingent. It is presumed he was down to Quebec to see his son off and was on his way back to Ottawa. Three injured are reported at the General hospital. Several people were injured by jumping from the window. Capt. O'Neil was seriously injured in that manner. Tact Webster House was frequented largely by railway men and country people.

The fire broke about 5.15, when everybody about the house was asleep and it is supposed to have started from an overheated furnace. The servants connected with the hotel were quartered above the kitchen and it is among them the majority of the fatalities occurred.

Careful enquiry at the city hospitals show that so far as known three people are dead as the result of the Webster house fire.

BOERS PUSHED BACK.

MONDAY'S ENGAGEMENT LASTED SEVERAL HOURS.

British Loss About 100, and the Boer Loss Was Much Greater—Battle Regarded as Inconclusive.

London, Oct. 30.—The war office here has received a dispatch which says Gen. White has fought an engagement, presumably with Gen. Joubert's force, which was pushed back after several hours fighting. The British lost about 100 men, and the Boer losses were much greater. The Boers were in larger numbers and had better artillery.

Gen. White's dispatch will be dated 6.30 p.m. today, read: "I employed all the troops here except the obligatory reason before the works. I sent a mountain battery, the Irish Fusiliers and the Gloucesters to take up a position on the hills, to clear my left flank. The force moved at 11 yesterday evening, and, during some night firing the battery mules stampeded with some of the guns, which, however, I hope to recover. The two battalions have not yet returned, but are expected this evening. I detailed two brigade divisions of the artillery and five battalions of infantry, aided by cavalry, under Gen. French, to attack the position upon which the enemy yesterday mounted guns. We found this position evacuated, but our force was attacked with considerable vigor by what I believe were Gen. Joubert's troops. They had many guns and showed in great numbers. Our troops were all in action, and we pushed the enemy back several miles, but did not succeed in reaching his laager. Our losses are estimated at between eighty and a hundred, but those of the enemy must have been much greater, the fire of our guns appearing very effective. After being in action several hours I withdrew the troops and they returned unmolested to their cantonments. The enemy are in great numbers, and their guns range further than our field gun. I now have several guns temporarily silenced, and hope will permanently dominate the enemy's best guns with which they have been bombarding the town at a range of over 6,000 yards."

Ladysmith, Natal, Oct. 30.—The naval brigade arrived this morning at half-past nine and has just commenced firing with six quick firing guns, with great precision. British firing is in progress on the right and left flanks. The movement was made at dawn with the object of shelling the Boers from the position where yesterday they had mounted a number of guns. On reaching the spot, however, it was found that they had evacuated the position. The British continued to advance and the movement developed into a reconnaissance in force. The enemy were posted on a range of hills, having a frontage of about sixteen miles.

The British force was dispersed in the following order: On the right, three regiments of cavalry, four battalions of the Royal Field artillery and five battalions of infantry; in the centre, three batteries of the Royal Field artillery, two regiments of cavalry and four infantry battalions, and on the left the Royal Irish Fusiliers, the Gloucestershire regiment and the Tenth Mountain battery. This force had been detailed to guard our left flank at a late hour last night. Gen. White's plan of operations was that, as the movement developed the force constituting our centre which was disposed under cover of a kopje, about three miles from the town should throw itself upon the enemy while the left flank was being held by the Fusiliers and the Gloucesters. The plan was well devised but failed in execution owing to the fact that the Boer position which formed our objective was evacuated.

Our artillery quickly reduced the volume of the enemy's fire; but the attack delivered on our right flank was the principal one and the column was compelled to change. The Boer attack had been silenced for a time and our infantry advanced covered by cavalry. The enemy now began to develop a heavy counter attack and as they were in great numerical superiority General White gave orders for the infantry to be gradually withdrawn. The movement was carried out with great address and deliberation under cover of our guns, which made excellent practice. The engagement lasted several hours and resulted on our side in casualties estimated at from 90 to 100. The Boers were found to be in great force at all points. Although we had seven batteries of artillery their fire failed entirely to crush the enemy until our infantry the Fifth Lancers, plucky rode across the enemy's front and feigned a retreat. This, however, failed to entice the enemy out, the Boers only replying with a shell fire. This flank attack so developed that Col. Hamilton had to reinforce our right with three batteries and the Gordon Highlanders and Devonshire regiment and the Manchester regiment at intervals. Our artillery then changed front and a severe artillery duel then ensued the guns generous supporting the reinforcing infantry as they advanced.

A HOT DAY EPISODE.

The Young Man Wanted a Book That Would Freeze His Blood.

"Have you anything horrible in stock?" asked the young man with the limp collar and the suffused brow as he walked into the lair of the bookseller.

"By any particular author?"

"I couldn't specify. To tell you the truth, I ain't literary. But a friend of mine was describing something he read, and I have been thinking that maybe books have more sense in 'em than I gave 'em credit for. I forgot the name of 'em, but anything in that line'll do."

"There are some ghost stories over on that shelf."

"May I read a little in 'em just to sample the goods?"

"Certainly."

"In less than a quarter of an hour he came back to the bookseller.

"I'll take too long to find out that way," he said. "I haven't seen anything yet that fills the bill."

"The afraid I haven't what you want in stock."

"I'll get my friend to give me the title and then come back. He said it would be something that would freeze the blood in your veins and make your hair stand on end. If I could find something to do that, I'd be the most liberal customer you ever sold to. I'm dead tired of having the blood go through my veins like hot water through the pipes of a Turkish bath, and if I could get something that would make my hair stand on end and make me feel like a big fish in a small pond, I'd give you the biggest bill in my salary envelope and never say a word except 'keep the change.'"—Washington Star.

SOMETHING MORE THAN A PURGATIVE—to purge is the only effect of many pills on the market. Purgative is Vegetable Pills are more than a purgative. They strengthen the stomach, where other pills only weaken it. They cleanse the blood by regulating the liver and kidneys, and they stimulate, where other pills compound depression. Nothing of an injurious nature, used for merely purgative powers, enters into their composition.

Insult Added to Injury.

Colonel Hankthunder called at the office of the local paper to express his mind concerning a typographical error that had appeared in a notice brought in by the colonel himself for publication.

The club with which he was connected had decided to give an entertainment at a public hall for some benevolent purpose, and the notice announcing it closed with the significant words, "Admission free."

But the printers had unaccountably made it read, "Admission free."

"It spoils the whole object of the festivity," said the colonel, pointing at the offending "r," "but I don't mind that half so much as the fact that what has knocked us out is a letter that has no legitimate existence, save in the English language."

"And then," said the man and hero who was making his way slowly and reluctantly homeward after a prolonged absence from his native land, "think of the babies I've got to meet who have been named for me since I went away!"

A BRAVE WOMAN.

How a Drunken Husband Was Made a Sober Man by a Determined Wife.

A PATHETIC LETTER.

She writes:—"I had for a long time been thinking of trying the Sanaria Prescription treatment on my husband for his drinking habits, but I was afraid he would discover that I was giving him medicine, and the thought unnerved me. I hesitated for nearly a week, but one day when he came home very much intoxicated and his wife's salary nearly all spent, I threw off all fear and determined to make an effort to save our home from the ruin I saw coming, at all hazards. I sent for your Sanaria Prescription and put it in his coffee as directed next morning and watched and prayed for the result. At noon I gave him more and also at supper. He never suspected a thing, and I then boldly kept right on giving it regularly. I had discovered something that set every nerve in my body tingling with hope and happiness, and I was giving a bright future spread out before me as a peaceful, happy home, a share in the good things of life, an attentive, loving husband, comforts, and everything else dear to a woman's heart, for my husband had told me that he was vilest stuff and he was taking a dislike to it. It was only too true, for before I had given him the first dose he had stopped drinking altogether, but I kept giving the medicine till it was gone, and then sent for another lot to have on hand if he should relapse, as he had done from his promises before. He never has, and I am writing you this letter to tell you how thankful I am. I honestly believe it will cure the worst cases."

A pamphlet in plain, sealed envelope, sent free, giving testimonials and full information, with directions how to take or administer Sanaria Prescription. Correspondence considered sacredly confidential. Address: The Sanaria Remedy Co., Jordan St., Toronto, Ont.

How to Label Goods.

Pat Maloney was mailing a box containing articles which he intended sending by rail. From the nature of the contents a friend knew it was essential that the box should not be inverted during the passage. He ventured to suggest to Pat to write conspicuously on the case, "This side up, with care." A few days afterward, seeing Pat again, he asked, "Heard any more about your goods? Did they get there safely?"

"Every one of them broke," said Pat. "The whole lot of 'em. You label it."

"Yes, I did. And for fear they shouldn't see it on the cover I put it on the bottom too."—Tit-Bits.

JAPANESE CATARRH CURE CURES.

The following testimonials are only one of the hundreds daily received by the Proprietors of Japanese Catarrh Cure. Coming from British Columbia, where, owing to extreme dampness of the climate, catarrh is more prevalent and more difficult to cure than in other parts, makes it more valuable. Mr. James P. F., of the well known firm of J. & E. A. Farr, Chilchick, B. C., writes: "I have been suffering from catarrh for years, and tried all the advertised remedies and many doctors, but in every case the catarrh came back. One year ago I purchased six boxes of Japanese Catarrh Cure, and since finishing the treatment with it, I am completely cured. My wife, who was also suffering from catarrh, has also been cured by Japanese Catarrh Cure. We keep it for sale in our retail store, and many others similarly afflicted who have been cured." ## DYNAMITE PILLS.

Why Your Doctor Writes Prescriptions in Obscure Latin.

"What the eye doesn't see the heart doesn't grieve over." This old, old saw is surely most applicable to the mysteries of modern pharmacy.

The advisability of physicians' prescriptions being couched in Latin has frequently been questioned, but the fact that in many cases medicines of the highest value would be refused by the patient if once their composition was known is a great point in favor of the present practice.

Many a patient, for instance, would probably gasp at his doctor prescribing to him dynamite as a remedy in heart disease. Dynamite is simply porous (lay saturated with nitroglycerin, and this same nitroglycerin is freely prescribed in cases of that prevalent disease of old age, "angina pectoris."

Pure venom of the rattlesnake is being used by eminent practitioners in severe cases of scarlet fever.

Dried bullocks' blood mixed with glycerin and brandy or simply powdered is one of the latest additions to the physician's armament.

The following prescription would probably be accepted by most of us as having a respectable appearance about it and when dispensed would probably be taken in most blissful ignorance:

Recipe:—Blutiae orientalis, drach. xii. Div. in pulvises calvi. Capiat unam ter in die.

Now for our translation:

Take of crushed cockroaches 12 drams. Divide in 144 powders. Take one three times a day.

Will it be believed that the above prescription is other than a relief to some one's quackery? Well, it is a fact that it is being used in this present year of grace and has only been introduced during the past few years.

Among other animal products used in medicine one familiar to all of us is peccary. It may be used to some extent, but is simply the gastric juice of the pig.

Leaving the animal world, we find gold, silver, copper and even glass in the form of silicate of soda all in constant use at this day.

And finally as to poisons. The most effective of poisons, and is used, is strychnine. Strychnine, introduced from central Africa some few years ago and now recognized as our most potent heart sedative, is the deadly arrow poison of the African cannibals.

Arsenic is our most frequently used blood purifier, and is used in many cases only as a means of vomiting and saves many more lives than it destroys, while morphia, aconite, mercury and many other of our virulent poisons are too well known in medicinal use to need mentioning.—London Mail.

WORKED WHILE ASLEEP.

A Curious Incident in the Career of Novelist Crockett.

Mr. S. R. Crockett, the novelist, tells a rather remarkable story of an incident that befell him for nearly a week, before fame and fortune had come to him and while he struggled on for a living. At that time he was obliged to write for very small sums indeed, and among the publications to which he contributed columns and half columns was The St. James Gazette, a London penny evening newspaper. One morning the postman brought to Mr. Crockett a letter containing a small check as payment for a contribution. Mr. Crockett knew that nothing was due to him, that he had nothing to do for nearly a week, and—remarkable man—he did the check up in an explanatory note and returned it to the editor.

The next day back came the check from the editor—remarkable man—with a note saying it was due. The St. James Gazette had published an article from the pen of Mr. Crockett which had not been paid for, hence the check. Again Mr. Crockett—remarkable man—returned the check, and still the remarkable editor reforwarded it, this time with the article cut out of the columns of the St. James Gazette.

Now comes the curious feature of the incident. When Mr. Crockett clipped the copy on the article, he was astonished to find it one of his dreams materialized. One night, going to bed extra tired, he dreamed that a good idea for a St. James Gazette column had occurred to him, that he then and there sat down, wrote it and posted it. Next morning he remembered his dream and made up his mind some day to write the article exactly as he dreamed he had written it, when, to his astonishment, came article and check from the newspaper. Few writers can check while asleep.

A Mean Man.

The tea things had been cleared away, and the head of the establishment was trying to read the evening paper while his better half busied herself with some fancy work and at the same time endeavoring to interest him in the gossip of the neighborhood.

"Maria," said he, glancing up from his paper, "did you ever hear the story of precious gems?"

"Why, no," she replied. "What is it?"

"It's an old time tale I heard of my grandmother told me when I was a boy," he continued, "about a woman from whose lips there fell either a diamond or a ruby every time she spoke a word."

"Well, go on," she said.

"That's all there is of it, Maria," he replied, "but I was just thinking if such things happened nowadays I'd open a jewelry store the first thing in the morning."

And then for 13 consecutive minutes silence reigned supreme.

TAKING THE REINS.

Hal B. 2:04½ has won $11,062.50 this year.

Tommy Britton hasn't lost a heat since Cleveland.

It is said that Lecco, 2:06½, has been priced at $11,000.

Light Ladie Mac, 2:06½, is now a qualified "two year old."

Directorium Kelly, 2:08½, will hardly be started again this year.

Rabber can 2:10 just about as easy as any mare now trotting for the money.

The bay mare May Bell, by St. Bel's Boy, who won the 235 trot at Danville, Ills., in 2:19½, is totally blind.

The green pacing filly Winnie Wilkes, by Ego Wilkes, 2:06½, recently paced a quarter at Alameda, Cal., in 3:14 seconds.

It is now said that Sunol, 2:08½, will be sold with the other horses of the late Robert Bonner, Maud S. 2:05½, alone being reserved.

The sensational 2-year-old trotter Baron Sidney, trial 2:17½, by Oakland Baron, 2:06½, is out of the Vernon, 2:22½, by Jay Bird.

A. Kaul & Sons of St. Marys, Pa., have bought the gray gelding Paul Pry, 2:11½, by Nantucket, of Louisville parties, and he is now in "Knapsack" McCarthy's stable.

Precision, 2:10½, by Allerton, is the star place money winner of the grand circuit. She has won three times second and three times third and has only won one heat to date.

Phoebe Wilkes, 2:08½, had held the honor as the fastest Michigan bred trotter for half a dozen years, but now the banner on the outer wall reads Peter the Great, 2:07½.

Up to 1890 but seven trotting stallions had ever beaten 2:08. Already this season five have done so—Bingen, 2:06½; Croesus, 2:07½; Peter the Great, 2:07½; Jupp, 2:07½, and Fred Kohl, 2:07½.—Horse Review.

Steamship Flowers.

It has been estimated that any crack steamer leaving New York for Europe takes with it bouquets worth from $5,000 to $15,000. In a few hours the passengers begin to feel queer and send the flowers out of their rooms. Then, according to the London Chronicle, they are selected by the steward, carefully sorted over and put into the icebox, and when the vessel reaches her English port they are sold and the profits divided among the men. American travelers, when they land, often buy flowers from English flower girls in the belief that they are English blossoms, when they are really the product of the gardens of New Jersey or Long Island.—Springfield Republican.

Mr. B. Bennie, of Union Mines, B.C., writes: "My son Samu I. Bennie got his leg crushed and bruised in the mines seven weeks ago. The swelling never fully left it until we tried Griffiths' Menstrual Liniment. I consider it the best liniment known." All druggists, 25 cents.

When it comes to healing up old running sores of long standing there is no remedy equal to Burdock Blood Bitters.

Bathe the sore with the B.B.B.—that relieves the local irritation.

Take the B.B.B. internally—that clears the blood of all impurities on which sores thrive.

Miss D. Melissa Burke, Grindstone, Magdalen Islands, P.Q., says:

"It is with pleasure I speak in favor of B.B.B. which cured me of a running sore on my leg. I consulted three doctors and they gave me salve to put on, but it did no good. Finally my leg became so sore I could not put my foot to the floor."

"I was advised to use B.B.B. and did so. Three bottles healed up my leg entirely so that I have never been troubled with it since."

THE POOR PROFESSOR.

He Really Needed a Shave, but Didn't Want to Be Told So.

The professor had not been shaved for four or five days owing to hard study on a little scientific problem. He came down from his room the other morning in this condition and, not having solved the problem, was not in a very pleasant frame of mind as he put on his coat and hat to go out.

"John, dear, aren't you going to shave before you go out?" asked his wife in a surprised tone.

The professor growled something about women minding their own business, slammed the door and was gone.

This was only a starter.

The professor had not gone two blocks before a barber, standing in the door of his shop, hailed him thus, "Shave, sir?" John had really intended stopping in the place; but, being warm under the collar already, this remark did not cool him off. So the barber lost a customer. Farther along the professor met a friend heading for a barber shop who asked John if he was going that way.

By this time the professor was mad, so mad, in fact, that he threatened to annihilate the next person who referred to his face in any way.

Continuing on down the street, he met his friend Jones. Jones, noticing the professor's dejected look, said as they neared a saloon: "Professor, you need a 'raiser.' Have one with me."

The professor, still thinking of his morning's adventures, thought Jones meant "razor." He was now hopping mad. This was the last insult he would stand. Slinging off his coat, he made a rush at Jones. Five minutes later they were both hauled away in the patrol.

Dear Sir,—I was for seven years a sufferer from Bronchial trouble, and would be no house at times that I could scarcely speak above a whisper. I got no relief from anything till I tried your MINARD'S HONEY BAL-SAM. Two bottles gave relief and six bottles made a complete cure. I would heartily recommend it to any one suffering from throat or lung trouble.

FOR THE OVERWORKED.—What are the causes of despair? Overwork, a disordered liver is one cause and a prime one. A disordered liver causes a disordered stomach, and a disordered stomach means disturbance of the nervous system. This brings the whole body into subjection and the victim feels sick all over. Parmenter's Vegetable Pills are a recognized remedy in this state and relief will follow their use.

BABY'S OWN SOAP

I Must have the genuine, The imitations look very nice, but they hurt my delicate SKIN.

THE ALBERT TOILET SOAP COY.

AN ELEGY IN BROOKLYN.

Some subtle instinct told the knell of day.

And to the bridge a straggling herd did flee.

And trolleys back to Brooklyn and to me.

And now chimed forth the urgent tocsin bell.

I've hied me back again to view the muse.

Reluctantly I bid the muse farewell;

Adieu until I get a bite to eat.

But now the frugal evening meal is past.

I've hied me back again to view the muse.

And, as the deepening shadows close in fast,

In reveries I find myself would lose.

Now glims the distant street lamp on my sight.

And all the air a deadly stillness holds.

Save where two cats upon the back fence fight,

And some too late marmalade loudly scold.

Save that from every open window near

Musical bursts forth with its voluptuous swell,

And all the tunes familiar for a year

Make one grand symphony of hang-dog yell.

Yet all but those who stum or think they sing

Upon their front steps swifter in the night.

Strange how it takes but summer music to bring

Enterpe fairly down upon both feet!

And as I ponder on this wondrous thing

Light sighs stir and gently fan my cheek.

Ah! what is that? Methinks to me they bring Back fragrant memories of Gowanus creek.

And now, in spite of all that I have said,

Some claim in this Elysium to reside

Who from their charms precipitate have fled

And left the boarder in his pomp and pride.

I will not strive their natures to disclose

Nor waste another line on souls so dead.

It's wasting late, and I must seek repose—

At all events, I guess I'll go to bed.

—Brooklyn Life.

There never was, and never will be, a universal panacea, in any remedy, for all ills to which flesh is heir—the very nature of many curatives being such that they are the germs of other and differently seated diseases rooted in the system of the patient—what would relieve one ill in turn bring on another.

We have, however, in Quinine Wine when obtainable in a sound, unadulterated state, a remedy for many and grievous ills. By its gradual and judicious use the feeblest systems are led into convalescence and strength by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restoratives. It relieves the drooping spirits of those with whom a chronic state of morbid despondency and lack of interest in life is a disease, and, by tranquilizing the nerves, it induces sound and refreshing sleep, imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which, being stimulated, courses throughout the veins, strengthening the healthy animal functions of the system, thereby making activity a necessary result, strengthening the frame, and giving life to the digestive organs, which naturally demand increased sustenance—results, improved appetite. The Summerside and Buffalo Lake Presbyterian mission fields will be again united for the present and possibly for the whole winter session. A society of men compels the Presbytery to make this arrangement. Mr. Wallace, missionary at Summerside, will take charge of the whole field. Announcement of services for Sunday, Nov. 12, will be as follows: 11 a.m., Small's house; 2:30 p.m., Huron church; 7 p.m., Marlborough school house. For Sabbath following, Nov. 19th, services will be held as follows: 10:30 a.m., Pioneer; 2:30 p.m., Summerside; 4:30 p.m., Caron. There will be no services on the Summerside field on Sunday next, Nov. 12.

Messrs. Jas. Thompson, postmaster at Elm Springs, Chas. Briggs, J. Saley and Jno. Heaton, all of Wood Mountain, are in town to-day. They report everything quiet in the district. The meeting had a splendid year. So far no prairie fires have occurred to do any damage, and there is consequently abundance of pasture for the stock during the winter months. The settlement has had an unprecedented year in regard to stock shipments, there being over 5,000 head of cattle and between one and two thousand horses shipped out this year. The timber wolves are beginning to make their appearance and during the recent snowstorm several head of cattle were killed. The ranchers feel very dissatisfied over the withdrawal of the bounty for the killing of these animals, and hope that some encouragement will be given the settlers for the destruction of these pests. It is proposed to hold a meeting on the 11th inst. for the purpose of considering the advisability of forming a stock association for the district. The meeting will be held at the store of Rapelle and Giles at Willow Bunch and a large attendance is expected.

Mr. E. C. Matthews, proprietor Maple Leaf Hotel, arrived Monday morning and will make his home in Moose Jaw.

A week from next Sunday His Lordship the Bishop of Qu'Appelle will administer the Sacrament of Confirmation in St. John's church, Moose Jaw.

Mr. Harry Johnson has opened a farmers' livery, feed and sale stable in the premises opposite the Oratory Hotel, where he proposes carrying on a first class business at moderate terms.

Mrs. Street, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. "Heck" McDonald, during the past few months, left for her home Tuesday evening. Mrs. Street likes Moose Jaw and hopes to come again.

Rev. O. Darwin returned home last Saturday from Brandon, where he had been attending the annual meeting of the Missionary Committee, which is composed of the chairmen of the different districts.

Mr. A. C. Paterson, of the North Portal customs office, was in Moose Jaw on Tuesday, and congratulated our town on the possession of a "daily paper," a copy of which, through the courtesy of a friend, he receives every evening.

Attention is directed to the advt. of the Moose Jaw Stock Exchange of this issue. Naturally people will wonder why the clerks are not outside in the picture, but the reason—Mr. McLean says—is quite apparent—They're too busy.

Threshing is now in full swing in the Marlborough settlement. Mr. W. Young has finished and has an average of thirty-one bushels of wheat and eighty bushels of oats. The threshers are now busy on the farm of Mr. J. G. Beesley.

Among the appointments gazetted this week are the following: Henry Mooney, of Westburn, to be Justice of the Peace; G. E. Gow, of Roche Porcupine, to be a commissioner for taking Affidavits; Wm. Sanders, of Swift Current, and Isaac C. Dixon, of Maple Creek, to be Issuers of Marriage Licenses.

The different Sunday schools in Moose Jaw have commenced practising for their annual entertainments.—The Methodists will hold theirs on the usual day, viz., Christmas night, when the special attraction will be a "Christmas Reel," of which further particulars will be announced that evening.

Mr. S. B. Sanders, manager of the Greenfield creamery, announces that he will open a flour and feed store in Mr. Bellamy's old stand on High Street west. Mr. Sanders is a Moose Jaw boy and is well and favorably known throughout the district. His many friends will wish him a successful business career.

Edmonton Post.—Hon. Mr. Haultain having declined to permit his name to go before the Conservative convention which will be called upon to nominate a candidate for Alberta in the coming Dominion elections, Mr. Chas. Magrath, of Lethbridge, has been mentioned as the next choice. Mr. Magrath is young and able and has a host of friends and admirers throughout the riding. He formerly represented Lethbridge in the Territorial Assembly, so he is not without experience in public life. It is not known whether Mr. Magrath will accept the nomination, but should he do so he will prove a strong candidate.

Hitherto the Moose Jaw district has not been kept before the public so persistently as it should have been. Hence the idea prevails in some quarters that our district is not as good for wheat growing as some other parts of "our vast heritage." The old proverb about blowing your own horn still holds good. Moose Jaw must blow its horn if it wants to be heard. THE TIMES is trying to do its share to advance the interests of the district. Last summer our representative said as much to most of the settlements, and we devoted several pages of our valuable space to write-ups of the localities visited. Some of our readers will no doubt be surprised to know that in several instances the articles were copied in full by eastern exchanges and other rural papers to which a copy had been sent by our friend. This week Mr. R. K. Thomson informs us that he sent a copy of our issue containing the Boharm write-up to a friend in the east. A short time afterwards he received a letter saying that they had read it all in "The Globe" before he had the copy sent. "That's right," he said, "I have hardly recovered from the 'black eyes' administered in this way about this time last year. When on the subject of this 'down east' business, we might say that we believe, as far as possible, in patronizing home industry. Every merchant in the west and in Moose Jaw will concur in saying, 'That's right.' Then don't give your job printing to a commercial traveler before you give THE TIMES a chance. It's only a matter of a couple of dollars; but it sets your customers a bad example. Just now we are endeavoring as far as possible to give the threshing returns in order to let outsiders know that the expectations of harvest time have been fully realized. We hope our farmer friends will assist us in this matter by forwarding us the information necessary."

Business Change.

As per announcement in another column it will be seen that Mr. Jno. H. Smith, our popular butcher, has disposed of his butcher business to Messrs. Alex. and Duncan McKenzie, who will conduct the business under the firm name of McKenzie Bros. Mr. Smith will still make Moose Jaw his home and purposes engaging in the cattle buying business. The McKenzies came to Moose Jaw from Dauphin, where they carried on a butcher business for some three years. Before settling here they made a tour of other towns of the Territories and the Kootenay country, and their decision to locate in Moose Jaw speaks well for our town. They have also purchased from Mr. Wm. Burton the premises now occupied by Mr. John Brass, where they will, in the near future, open up a line of groceries and flour and feed.

Wedding Bells.

A very quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday, Nov. 8th, at 10:30 o'clock, at the home of Mr. W. A. Cooper, when his sister, Miss Emma Cooper, was married to Mr. T. E. Truscott, of Alameda. The young couple had the honor of being the first to be united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. Samuel McLean, who had just been ordained the previous afternoon. This being his first experience, the reverend gentleman exercised much care, and the nuptial knot was soundly tied with great precision. The brother of the bride, Mr. W. A. Cooper, acted as best man, and the bride was assisted through the trying ordeal by her sister-in-law, who is herself a bride only a few days. The ceremony being ended the guests sat down to a sumptuous wedding repast, after which they escorted the happy young couple to the evening train, by which Mr. and Mrs. Truscott left for their home at Alameda. The bride is well and favorably known in Moose Jaw having resided here a number of years. THE TIMES wishes to join her many friends in their congratulations.

Wanted—A Farm to Rent.

To the Editor of THE TIMES.
Dear Sir—Can you furnish me with the name of any party who has an improved farm to rent, or if you will state terms I will be glad to advertise for such through your paper. I am a farmer, am about selling out here, and will probably go west in the spring, taking a car of stock and household effects. As I have not had time or opportunity to go ahead and choose a permanent location, I would like to rent a small farm with necessary buildings on that I could occupy at once on my arrival, and land enough under cultivation to give me a crop the first season.

I had thought of starting in the Red Deer country, but some parties from here were looking over the country last summer and reported so favorably on your section I am inclined to try it. Any information on the matter will be thankfully received by yours truly.

ALEX. B. CHAOTE, Ingersoll, Ont.
[Any one who has a farm to rent should write Mr. Chaote at the above address.]

THE DOCTOR'S WIFE.

A Four Years Cripple From Acute Rheumatism. South American Rheumatic Cure Was the True Physician.

Mrs. J. H. Harte, of 223 Church street, Toronto, wife of Dr. Harte, suffered severely from rheumatism for five years. She could not walk without the use of a cane. At times the pains were intense, and she suffered tortures. No remedy or treatment gave any relief. She was induced to try South American Rheumatic Cure. She used four bottles and to-day is free from pain, and she closes her signed testimony by saying: "I am entirely cured and can move about as blithely as ever in my life."

News From Canadian Contingent.

The Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal, has the grand distinction of having with the contingent a special war correspondent, thoroughly accredited, who accompanies the Canadian troops by permission of the Minister of Militia, Dr. Borden, and who goes with instructions from the War Office, by the Secretary of War. The Family Herald has the choice of empowering a man in the ranks to send an occasional letter and dubbing him its war correspondent, or engaging a special expert equipped with photographic apparatus and accompanied by a mounted orderly. The difference in cost was a matter of five thousand dollars. As might have been expected the Family Herald chose the expensive plan.

Lady Smith is called after the wife of Sir Harry Smith, formerly commanding general in South Africa. She was a Spanish girl to whom the general gave protection when he was a subaltern in the Peninsular war, and who subsequently married him. Harrismith is named after her husband.
